

Concours vidéo 2023 sur l'importance du sport

In celebration of the 2023 Rugby World Cup & in anticipation of the Paris 2024 Olympics, the AIPLF organises a video competition for TY, 5th & 6th Year students of French, with the kind support of:

- Thomas Byrne TD, Irish Minister of State for Sport and Physical Education;
- H.E. Vincent Guérend, Ambassador of France to Ireland.

- A participating team must be a group of 3, 4 or 5 students.

They must explain in French why sport is important.

Entries will be judged on the quality of the arguments expressed by the participants, the staging of the video, and the participants' French pronunciation.

- Entries must be submitted by a teacher of French as a video recording (please note that teachers must retain proof of written consent from the participants' legal guardians).
- The video recording must be sent by a French teacher via wetransfer.com to aiplf.ie@gmail.com
- Maximum video length accepted: 3 minutes.
- The name of the file must indicate the names of the French teacher, students, school and county.
- Entries must be made specifically for this competition.
- The use of copyrighted material (photo, text, music, etc.) is not permitted.
- This competition is only open to post-primary TY, 5th and 6th Year students who study French in the Republic of Ireland.
- Deadline: 13th December 2023.

There are prizes for the winners!
